More Than 2,000 Connect with GTL's Technology in Motion Tour
Mobile briefing program reaches major milestone at recent industry conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Reston, Virginia – August 30, 2017 – GTL, an innovation leader in correctional technology, education solutions that assist in rehabilitating inmates, and payment services solutions for government, today announced that more than 2,000 visitors have boarded the Technology in Motion tour bus. The milestone was reached on August 20 at the American Correctional Association's 147th Congress of Correction.

Technology in Motion is equipped to provide hands-on demonstrations for GTL's full range of products and services for the corrections, government, and education sectors. The vehicle's onboard demo system incorporates a number of new GTL offerings, including photo attachments and video attachments for GTL's secure inmate messaging offering as well as eBooks and entertainment subscription services for Inspire 2.0, GTL's versatile and secure inmate tablet.

In the short time since the launch of Technology in Motion in April 2017, the tour vehicle has traveled more than 18,000 miles and made more than 40 stops. By the time the tour pulled out of the ACA conference in St. Louis, over 2,250 people representing 120 government agencies had visited the vehicle.

"Technology in Motion has exceeded our expectations on customer engagement," said Jon Walker, Executive Vice President of Sales at GTL. "Our customers are busy keeping their facilities safe and efficient, so it is convenient when we can bring our full suite of solutions directly to where they work."

The official Technology in Motion website features the tour schedule and other information about this unique program. Customers interested in a tour stop may either contact their GTL sales representative or send a tour stop request to techinmotion@gtl.net.
