SECTION 2 - RULES AND REGULATIONS, (CONT'D.)

2.9 Deposits and Advance Payments

2.9.1 Deposits

The Company does not normally require deposits. However the company reserves the right to collect a deposit from parties who are billed for collect calls from inmates, pursuant to standards established by rules set forth and maintained in accordance with Commission rules.

2.9.2 Advance Payments

The Company does not normally require advance payments for service. However, for Customers whom the Company determines an advance payment is necessary, the Company reserves the right to collect an amount not to exceed one (1) month's estimated charges as an advance payment for service. This will be applied against the next month's charges and a new advance payment may be collected for the next month, if necessary.

Issued: April 18, 2022

Effective: April 18, 2022

SECTION 2 - RULES AND REGULATIONS, (CONT'D.)

2.10 Payment for Service

The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges for services and equipment furnished to the Customer or Inmate by the Company. All charges due by the Customer are payable to the Company or to any agency duly authorized to receive such payments (such as a local exchange company).

2.10.1 Disputed Charges

Charges billed directly by the Company are due upon receipt. Amounts not paid within 20 days of the invoice will be considered past due. For charges billed directly by the Company, notice from the Customer of a dispute as to charges should be received by the Company as soon as possible.

The Company will promptly investigate and advise the Customer as to its findings concerning disputed charges. Adjustments to Customer's bills will be made to the extent that circumstances exist which reasonably indicate that such changes are appropriate.

2.10.2 Validation of Credit

The Company reserves the right to validate the creditworthiness of Customers and billed parties through available verification procedures. Where a requested billing method cannot be validated or maximum credit amount established, the Company may refuse to provide service.

Services provided by the Company are available to inmates of correctional facilities in accordance with facility-authorized programs. The Company may request that the correctional facility adopt, as part of its program, terms that enable the Company to collect the charges for all inmate calls, including without limitation, the blocking of calls by the Company to certain telephone numbers when the amount charged to such a telephone number exceeds a predetermined amount or becomes past due.

2.10.3 Late Payment Fee

Issued: April 18, 2022

Effective: April 18, 2022

SECTION 3 - DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE AND RATES

3.1 General

Service is offered to inmates of correctional or confinement facilities for outward-only calling. Calls may be billed to residential or business lines. Billing information will be validated.

3.2 Timing of Calls

3.2.1 Long distance usage charges are based on the actual usage of GTL's network. Timing of a call begins when the called party accepts the charges for the call. Positive response for acceptance of a call is required. A call will be terminated within five (5) seconds from the last message given if no positive response is received.

3.2.2 Chargeable time for a call ends upon disconnection by either party.

3.2.3 The minimum call duration and initial period for billing purposes is one minute.

3.2.4 Unless otherwise specified in this price list, for billing purposes usage is measured and rounded to the next higher full minute.

3.2.5 No charges apply for incomplete calls or for calls to called parties who do not accept the charges for the call. GTL will terminate a call if the called party does not accept responsibility for the charges. If a Customer believes he or she has been incorrectly billed for an incomplete call, the Company will, upon notification, investigate the circumstances of the call and issue a credit when appropriate.

Issued: April 18, 2022

Effective: April 18, 2022

SECTION 3 - DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE AND RATES, (CONT'D.)

SECTION 3 - DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE AND RATES, (CONT'D.)

3.4 Institutional Operator Assisted Calling

Institutional operator assisted service allows inmates to place collect calls through an automated call processing system. The call processing system prompts the inmate and the called party such that the call is completed without live operator assistance. Calls are placed on a collect-only basis to the called party.

A number of special blocking and screening capabilities are available with institutional operator services provided by the Company. These capabilities allow Institutions to control Inmate access to telecommunications services, reduce fraudulent use of the Company's services, and eliminate harassing calls to persons outside the institution.

For services provided to inmates of institutions, the following special conditions apply:

1. Calls to "900," "976" or other pay-per-call and call-forwarding services are blocked or may be blocked by the Company.
2. At the request of the institution, the Company may block inmate access to toll-free numbers (e.g., 800, 888) and dialing sequences used to access other carriers or operator service providers (e.g., 950-XXXX, 10XXXX).
3. At the request of the Institution, the Company may block inmate access to "911", "411", or local operators reached through "0-" dialing.
4. At the request of the Institution, the Company may block inmate access to specific telephone numbers.
5. Availability of the Company's services may be restricted by the institution to certain hours and/or days of the week.
6. At the request of the institution, no notices or signage concerning the Company's services will be posted with its instruments. Information concerning the Company's services is provided to the administration of each institution where the Company's services are offered. Inmates may obtain information regarding rates and charges by requesting such information from the institution's administration.
7. At the request of the institution, the Company may impose time limits on local and long distance calls placed using its services.
8. At the request of the institution, equipment may be provided which permits monitoring of inmate calls by legally authorized government officials.

Effective: April 18, 2022

SECTION 3 - DESCRIPTION OF SERVICE AND RATES, (CONT'D.)

3.5 GTL Institutional Automated Collect Operator Service

GTL provides Institutional Automated Collect Operator Service to inmates of Confinement Facilities. Service may be limited by the administrators of the institutions as to availability, call duration or calling scope. Calls are billed to the Called Party. The Called Party must actively accept charges for the call. A per-call service charge applies to each call.

Institutional automated collect operator service allows inmates to make collect calls to terminating locations anywhere within in the state. An automated system prompts the caller and the called party through user - friendly instructions. The called party must accept responsibility for payment of the charges by dialing the designated digit for acceptance. If a call is not accepted within five (5) seconds of the automated voice recording prompt, the automated recording is replayed a second time. If an acceptance digit is not received five (5) seconds after the second recording is completed, the call is terminated by GTL' system.

Use of the automated collect calling service is subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission and the correctional facility's administrative restrictions.

3.3.1 Classes of Calls

Automated Collect Station Calls: are calls which are placed by an Inmate who dials all of the digits required to route the call and who follows the GTL system prompts, enabling the Called Party to accept the charges for the call. If the Called Party does not accept the call, the call is terminated and no billing applies

3.6 Institutional Telephone Debit Accounts

3.6.1 Definition

This is a prepaid telephone account available to inmates and other incarcerated persons at correctional facilities that permit this service. Participating individuals elect to transfer funds either from their facility's inmate trust fund or a commissary account. The transfer method is either manual (vouchers) or electronic through a funds transfer interface between the Company and the facility or commissary.

3.6.2 Call Process

The Company establishes debit accounts which are associated with the inmate's personal Identification Number (PIN). When a call is placed, either the "collect" or "debit" option is selected. Once debit is selected, the inmate enters the called telephone number and PIN. The Company's system automatically informs the caller of the Available Usage Balance remaining in the Prepaid Debit Account, and the rates for the call being attempted. Network usage for completed calls is deducted from the Available Usage Balance at the conclusion of the call.

Any unused funds in a Prepaid Debit Account are refundable upon request. Refunds are issued by the entity controlling the actual cash deposits, which depending on the specific arrangements, is either the Company, the commissary, the correctional facility itself or its agent, unless otherwise directed by state law. The Available Usage Balance expires three months from the date of the last activity on the Prepaid/Debit account, unless alternative arrangements are expressly requested by the correctional facility's management. No refunds of unused balances will be issued after the expiration date.

3.6.3 Rates and Charges

- A. Option 1 - Rates and charges for Prepaid Debit Accounts are the same as those set forth in the Company's institutional collect call rate schedules.
- B. Option 2 - Rates and charges for Prepaid Debit Accounts are provided at a discount, per request of correctional facility.

3.7 Advance Pay Accounts

In those areas where the Company does not have a direct billing agreement with the existing local exchange carrier, or upon a Customer's request, the Company will set up a Advance Pay Account with the Called Party (Customer) for payment of collect calls placed from institutions served by the Company. Funds in the Customer's Advance Pay account may only be used for payment of collect calls placed by inmates to telephone numbers specified by the Customer. Establishment and maintenance of an Advance Pay Account is required to complete collect calls to Customers served by local exchange carriers with which the Company does not have an existing direct billing and collection agreement. (T)

Upon request, the Company will provide the Customer with a personal identification number (PIN) and a toll-free number to call in order to set up the account information, including the permissible numbers that the inmate may call.

Additional payments will be accepted with a $50.00 payment maximum. Initial and additional payments into the account may be made by cash, check, credit card or Western Union. Transaction fees will apply for credit card and check by phone transactions. All payments will be subject to applicable taxes.

When an inmate places a call, the Customer is informed of both the caller's identity and the account balance prior to accepting the call. Customers may also contact the Company's toll-free customer service number for account balance information at any time.

If the Advance Pay Account balance becomes depleted, calls placed to the numbers specified by the Customer will be blocked until the Advance Pay Account is replenished.

The Customer may close the Advance Pay Account at any time, but accounts are automatically closed following three months of inactivity. The Customer may seek a refund of unused Advance Pay balances upon request at any time, even if the account has been closed. Any remaining balance in the account will be refunded to the Customer after deducting any call charges, applicable taxes, and transaction fees incurred during the current billing cycle. (T)

3.9 Confinement Services – State Department of Corrections

3.9.1 Maximum Security Collect Service

Maximum Security Collect Service is Operator Station Collect calls placed from certain authorized institutional telephones presubscribed to the Company and completed to Customers who have previously agreed to accept these calls. Service under the Maximum Security Collect Service is offered pursuant to contracts with authorized confinement institutions.

If a Customers telecommunications payment history is not acceptable to the Company or if a Customers telecommunications payment history is unknown or indeterminable, Customer may be required, at any time, to provide (i) pre-invoice payment based on usage incurred; (ii) a valid major credit card account number from an issuer acceptable to the Company and authorization for the Company to charge usage to your credit card account; or (iii) agreement that Customer usage of the Company network and services will be subject to usage limits to be determined by the Company. Prior to Customer compliance with this request, the Company reserves the right to cease accepting and processing service. The Company may request subsequent additional Customer pre-invoice payments for usage and may increase or decrease Customer toll usage limits as the Company deems appropriate. The Company may refuse to furnish services if any charges are owed by Customer to the Company or any Company affiliate, or charges are past due for service(s) received by Customer.
